Dated: 8th June, 2006

Between:

.. Petitioners

and

District Collector (Civil Supplies),

Prakasam district, Ongole & others.

.. Respondents

THE HON'BLE SRI JUSTICE C.V.RAMULU

ORDER:

This writ petition is filed complaining that the stay petition filed by the petitioner along with the revision before the first respondent-District Collector was not disposed of till date.

Pursuant to the notification issued for filling up the fair price shops, the petitioner also applied along with others. It seems, the fourth respondent was selected in the interview conducted by the respondents and she was offered with the authorization of fair price shop dealership subject to fulfilling certain conditions. Since she did not fulfill certain conditions, the same was cancelled and the fair price shop was allotted in the name of petitioner herein stating that after fourth respondent, it is the petitioner who faired well in the interview. Aggrieved by the same, the fourth respondent filed appeal before the second respondent-Joint Collector. The Joint Collector allowed the appeal holding that once the selection process is completed, the appointment of candidates against any vacancy caused thereof, should be by way of issue of fresh notification and not otherwise. Being aggrieved by the said order, the petitioner filed revision before the first respondent-District Collector and the same is pending. In the said revision, the petitioner also sought stay of the orders passed by the second respondent-Joint Collector. According to the petitioner, the first respondent is not disposing of his stay application filed along with the revision, which is causing prejudice to her interest.

In view of the above, without expressing any opinion on the merits of the case, the first respondent-District Collector is directed to dispose of the stay application filed by the petitioner along with revision, within a period of three weeks from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

With the above directions, the writ petition is accordingly disposed of. No order as to costs.
